

Community Relations

Parental Involvement – Title I

Parents of eligible Title I students are invited to become involved in the design, planning, and implementation of the Title I project. Consultation with parents will be organized, systematic, ongoing, informed, and timely.

Parents will be invited to become involved in the formation of the education program for their child. A general orientation meeting will be held at the beginning of each year. Parent conferences will be held throughout the year as provided on the calendar and those requested by parent, child, or teacher. Individual progress will be reported individually to the child's parent and child.

District-Level Parental Involvement Compact - The Superintendent or designee shall develop a District-Level Parental Involvement Compact according to Title I requirements. The District-Level Parental Involvement Compact shall contain: (1) the District's expectations for parental involvement, (2) specific strategies for effective parent involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, and (3) other provisions as required by federal law. The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that the Compact is distributed to parents/guardians of students receiving services or enrolled in programs under Title I.

School-Level Parental Involvement Compact - Each Building Principal or designee shall develop a School-Level Parental Involvement Compact according to Title I requirements. This School-Level Parental Involvement Compact shall contain: (1) a process for continually involving parents/guardians in its development and implementation, (2) how parents/guardians, the entire school staff, and students share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement, (3) the means by which the school and parents/guardians build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State's high standards, and (4) other provisions as required by federal law. Each Building Principal or designee shall ensure that the Compact is distributed to parents/guardians of students receiving services, or enrolled in programs in Title I.
